NOTES

1. This edition of the Army List is corrected generally to include promotions, appointments, etc., promulgated on or before 15 February 1969.

2. The figures in square brackets after the titles of Infantry regiments denote the former regimental districts to which the regiments belonged.

3. The badges, devices, distinctions and mottoes borne on Standards, Guidons and Regimental Colours are shown after the title of regiments, the "centre" badge being printed in heavy type. In the case of Regiments and Corps which do not bear Standards, Guidons or Colours, the badges, etc., shown after their titles are the cap badge or shoulder belt badge.

4. The honorary distinctions below the titles of regiments denote the honours awarded to regiments in commemoration of their services. Those printed in heavy type are borne on their Standards, Guidons or Colours or, in the case of regiments having no Standards, Guidons or Colours, on their Appointments.

5. The Great War and the Second World War battle honours shown in heavy type are borne on the Queen's Colour: the remaining battle honours shown in heavy type are borne on the Regimental Colour. Foot Guards bear all battle honours shown in heavy type on the Queen's and Regimental Colours.

6. The colour of uniform, etc., indicated is that of No. 1 dress except where otherwise stated.

7. Indian Army Associations. A list of addresses of secretaries or representatives of associations connected with the Indian Army (pre 1947) and Auxiliary Force (India) is maintained at the National Army Museum, the official Museum for the Indian Army. Correspondence should be addressed to :—

The Director, National Army Museum, RMA Sandhurst, Camberley, Surrey. (Tel. Camberley 21128).

8. All communications on officers' personal entries in this List (other than those on obvious misprints) should be addressed to the Ministry of Defence, AODO, Stanmore, Middlesex. Communications from officers about their own personal entries should be sent through officers commanding units or establishments.

9. Officers who succeed to peerages, baronetcies or courtesy titles or who change their names are immediately to notify the fact to the Ministry of Defence, AODO, Stanmore, Middlesex, in order that the necessary alteration may be made in the official records of the Army Department, and in the Army List.

10. Communications regarding other matter appearing in this List should be addressed to the Ministry of Defence, C3AL (AD), Stanmore, Middlesex.

11. Part II of the Army List, Spring Edition, contains an alphabetical list of non-effective Officers in receipt of retired pay, Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service (retired), miscellaneous appointments, Warrants, Regulations, etc.

34 The Home Guard.

(a) But on parade, with their guns, to take the right and march at the head of the Household Cavalry.

(b) Divisions of Infantry have precedence as shown in the Corps Warrant. The precedence of the individual infantry regiments remains as it was before the grouping of Infantry Regiments was introduced.

(c) The precedence of the Royal Marines will be as follows :—

(i) When a Royal Navy contingent is present (including for this purpose a contingent of the Royal Naval Reserve) contingents of the Royal Marines and Royal Marines Reserve will form part of the naval contingent and take precedence before the Army contingents.

(ii) When no contingents of the Royal Navy or Royal Naval Reserve are present, contingents of the Royal Marines and Royal Marines Reserve, if present, will take precedence after Regular and Territorial and Army Volunteer Reserve contingents respectively, of The Duke of Edinburgh's Royal Regiment (Berkshire and Wiltshire).

(d) In order of arms as for the Regular Army.

(e) Women's Royal Army Corps personnel on the establishment of mixed units when parading with the male element of the unit will take precedence immediately after the male element.

CORPS OF ROYAL ELECTRICAL AND MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

Upon a lightning flash, a horse forcene gorged with a coronet of four fleur-de-lys, a chain reflexed over its back and standing on a globe. Above, a crown upon a scroll bearing the letters " R.E.M.E.".
